Berkeley, California.

Gentlemen:

Yours of January 22nd received. A copy of the Song Book was mailed you on the 16th inst, and will probably reach you yet.

But as you may be in a hurry, I am sending you another copy by this mail. I will also have a tracer sent out for the former copy. In case that should reach you, you can either hold this extra one against the demand which will unquestionably come later or return it to me.

Sincerely Yours,

CFL/MD

Sather Gate Book Shop,
2235 Telegraph Ave.,
Berkeley, Cal.

Gentlemen:-

I have your order for 1 "Flowers of Lost Romance" - Lummis.

I assume that you mean, as in prior orders,
the Spanish Songs of Old California, which are referred to in the song under the sub-title of "Flowers of Lost Romance".

Perhaps it would be as well to order the book
by its title.

However, I send you a copy -- by mail, which costs 6 cents, whereas it would cost at least a quarter to have it sent by book-express as your order reads.

I am enclosing invoice.

Yours very truly,

THE SATHER GATE BOOK SHOP

Berkeley, California

Gentlemen:

I am sending you today by mail one copy of the Spanish Songs of Old California, prepaid, and enclose invoice herewith.

It is hardly worth my while to spend 20¢ carfare to go to the express office to send one song book.

I should imagine that in your location you could handle orders of ten to twenty copies, in which case I could deliver them to you by express prepaid at $1.00 flat.

Sincerely Yours,
